

CVBA SCHOLARSHIP AWARD PROGRAM

The City of Vaughan Baseball/Softball Association (CVBA) is a not-for-profit sports association representing the interests of children throughout the City of Vaughan. The CVBA has created an award to recognize the academic excellence of post-secondary students as well as their community involvement and their strong communication skills.

The City of Vaughan Baseball/Softball Association will annually provide up to three (3) awards of $1,500 each to post-secondary school students from families who are members of the City of Vaughan Baseball/Softball Association.

Candidates must make written application by Application Form, to the CVBA demonstrating their eligibility for the Scholarship and stating the reasons that they should be considered.

Eligibility

- Candidates must have been or currently are player or umpire members of the CVBA for a minimum of five years (minimum three years as a player);
- Candidates must be children or dependents of current CVBA members in good standing (within the last playing season);
- Candidates must be in their final year of a secondary school program planning to pursue studies at a post secondary institution or be a post secondary student continuing studies at post secondary institution;
- Candidates must have been granted conditional acceptance at a post secondary institution or be enrolled at a post secondary institution;
- Candidates must have interest in, and contribute to, their community through active participation in extracurricular activities on campus and/or in civic organizations;
- Candidates must submit a 500 to 800 word essay on the topic of how baseball/softball has changed or affected their life or what has playing baseball/softball meant to them; and
- Candidates are to make their submission to the City of Vaughan Baseball/Softball Association by May 15, in the subject year.

- Each Application Form must include the latest school transcripts along with the previous year's transcripts;
- Application must be submitted to the CVBA offices by May 15 in the subject year; and,
- Applications will not be returned, they become property of CVBA. The CVBA retains the rights to publish any essay submitted.

D. Selection Committee and Awards Criteria

- Applications will be assessed by, at minimum, a three (3) person Selection Committee which will be appointed each year consisting of either:
 - One member from the CVBA Board of Directors;
 - One member from the Administration of the CVBA;
 - One member from the YSBA Board of Directors; but not a CVBA member;
 - One member from the greater Toronto area media;
 - One member from the City of Vaughan Chamber of Commerce or equivalent; and/or
 - One member from the City of Vaughan Council or his/her administrator or equivalent.
- The make-up of the Committee will be such that no member of the committee will be related to any of the applicants;
- The Committee members will announce on the CVBA website in May.
- Judging will be based on:
 - Review of secondary and or post secondary school transcripts together with baseball/softball extra-curricular activities and community involvement and any significant achievements and or awards;
 - Any letters of reference and/or recommendations received from school teaching staff or other testimonials from community groups or employers;
 - Evaluation of the essay;
 - Financial need of the applicant;
 - Final selection is made on an equal opportunity basis with the assessment scored on the above points;
- Scholarships will be awarded by the CVBA, based on the recommendations of the Selection Committee;
